Everyday Evangelizing

All of us are called to evangelize and this can be done in simple ways in our everyday lives. A suggestion this week:

Today's Gospel account of the feeding of the five thousand reminds us of the abundant life only Jesus provides. On Tuesday, we remember St. Alphonsus Liguori, who had to correct the mistaken idea that no one was worthy to receive Communion. He said that celebrating the Eucharist was a way to become holy, not a reward for being holy. Focus on becoming holy as you come forward to receive the Bread of Life each week.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

An astonishing sign! Who is this man? A miracle worker? A prophet? A king? YES - Jesus is and more. The superabundance of food Jesus provides from so little is a sign of the fullness of life Jesus has to offer. We turn to Jesus not just for bread but for life. Question—What in my life needs a superabundance of food from Jesus?

WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR?

There is no better time than RIGHT NOW to pray and think about volunteering as a Eucharistic Minister to the Homebound. Openings are available; training is provided and the best part is that it takes about 1 hour each month. Contact Dave Daniels 499-7514 for more information or to sign-up.

THOSE ENVELOPES ARE BRIGHT

Bright yellow envelopes are positioned at the entrances to church. These envelopes are intended to be bright so that the color will "grab" attention. Monies donated through these envelopes help support the ministry of the St. Agnes Parish Neighborhood Outreach Project. The Outreach project was started to assist our brothers and sisters in Christ who suffer the indignity of poverty and homelessness. Please be as generous as your circumstances allow when choosing to donate through these envelopes. THANK YOU for your generosity.

ATTENTION ALL EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS

The scheduling for the next session, September through December is in the planning stages at this time. If you are not going to be available for any extended periods of time, please call Gloria at 499-8684 or email her at debeckgj@new.rr.com. There continues to be a real need for more Eucharistic Ministers for the 11am Masses. Please consider joining our team of ministers. This is such an enjoyable ministry! Call for more information.

All Lectors and Commentators are asked to stop in the sacristy after Mass for upcoming scripture readings for August!
