Our Own Parish News

TO THE VISITORS WITHIN OUR DOORS!

St. Agnes Parish welcomes you into our parish community this weekend. We sincerely hope you feel at home and among friends. If you are a visitor just for today, we bid you Godspeed on your journey. If you are seeking a Church home, we will welcome you into our parish family here at St. Agnes. Just call the parish office at 494-2534.

Seminarian Collection

Young men are responding to God's call to be priests for the Diocese of Green Bay. This past June, three men were ordained priests for our parishes. This fall, six new men will begin their seminary studies. There is hope for the future! Now, we need to help them today by supporting their calling. Providing tuition, room and board, insurance and a small stipend for our seminarians is expensive: about $600,000 for the coming year.

Next weekend our parish will take a collection for the training of these men to be our future priests in the Diocese of Green Bay. Won't you be generous with a gift? Andrew Mulloy who will be attending St. John Vianney Seminary in the fall will speak at our Masses. Andrew is the grandson of Katie Ver Kuilen of our parish. There is hope for the future! Let us help them today!

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

What does "rising from the dead" mean? Even disciples who have first-hand experience of Jesus' transfigured glory do not know. Yet, in a cloud of unknowing, they chose to "listen to Him" and follow Him. As we listen to Jesus, God's beloved Son, we will receive glimpses of His glory to sustain us on our journey of discipleship and remind us of our won awaited glory. Finish this sentence: "I best listen to God's voice when . . ."

SO YOU ENJOY SINGING?

Would you like to volunteer yourself in song and worship? If so, come and join the St. Agnes Choir on Thursdays, 6:30-8:00pm in the Church. Our first practice will be on Thursday, August 31. For more information call Kelly (Stewart) Grailer at 606-0934.

WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR?

There is no better time than RIGHT NOW to pray and think about volunteering as a Eucharistic Minister to the Homebound. Openings are available; training is provided and the best part is that it takes about 1 hour each month. Contact Dave Daniels 499-7514 for more information or to sign-up.

Everyday Evangelizing

All of us are called to evangelize and this can be done in simple ways in our everyday lives. A suggestion this week:

During this coming week we remember St. Dominic, St. Lawrence and St. Clare. Dominic began a religious order for men and women called the Order of Preachers, also known as the Dominican Order. Clare, along with her lifelong friend Francis began a convent, calling themselves the Poor Ladies, now call the Poor Clares. Clare died on the feast of St. Lawrence, a deacon who spent his life as a servant of the needy. These three saints are role models for true discipleship. Follow their example by reaching out to someone in spiritual, physical or emotional need.
