Everyday Evangelizing

All of us are called to evangelize and this can be done in simple ways in our everyday lives. A suggestion this week:

Since we remember The Guardian Angels on Monday and Our Lady of the Rosary on Saturday, make an effort to pray an entire rosary this week. After praying the five decades of wither the Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious or Luminous Mysteries, one of the closing prayers is the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel.

Our Own Parish News

TO THE VISITORS WITHIN OUR DOORS!

St. Agnes Parish welcomes you into our parish community this weekend. We sincerely hope you feel at home and among friends. If you are a visitor just for today, we bid you Godspeed on your journey. If you are seeking a Church home, we will welcome you into our parish family here at St. Agnes. Just call the parish office at 494-2534.

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Both the first reading and the Gospel contrast generous leadership and petty discipleship. Moses and Jesus want as many people as possible to share in God's work while disciples want to restrict who can do this work. Jealousy and pettiness thwart the advancement of God's Kingdom and they must be cut out. Moses and Jesus keep us focused on what is essential: God's Kingdom. Question: God's Word causes me to live, like Jesus, passionately about the kingdom when I . . .

Pictorial Directory

They have arrived! If your picture is included in the Directory you will receive a complimentary copy. They are available in Lobas Lounge today, before and after Mass. After today they can be picked up at the Parish Office.

PEACE ON EARTH . . .

This is the central theme of the Gospel of Luke! Beginning Monday, October 9, 6-8pm in the Church and Mondays, October 16, 23 and 30, Father Sam Jadin, O.Praem. will present his insights into the Gospel of Luke. The message of this Gospel is contemporary; Jesus teaches true peace through the practice of non-violence, love, compassionate justice, true repentance and forgiveness. Father Jadin will bring his biblical scholarship, keen Gospel insight and a sense of humor to provide solid background. MAKE PLANS TO ATTEND!

'FAITH ALIVE' ON DIOCESAN WEBSITE

Please refer to the Green Bay Catholic Diocesan web site at www.gbdioc.org for the first draft of a proposal for the future of Green Bay area Catholic day schools. The plan is called Faith Alive. Please read the plan on the web site and share your feedback with the diocese. Click on the red box with the words "Faith Alive" written in white. There is a link for feedback on this page.

COMMUNITY OF CHRISTIAN WOMEN POTLUCK SUPPER

Religious Education & Youth Ministry Center

First Eucharist Parent Meeting: There will be two parent meetings for the First Reconciliation and First Eucharist programs on Tuesday October 10, in the Social Hall. One meeting will be at 10am, the other at 6:30pm; all families who wish to participate in the programs are asked to attend one of these two meetings. For more information please contact us at the Center at 494-6450 or e-mail us at religioused@stagnesgreenbay.org.

Religious Education Enrollment: There is still time to enroll your child in the St. Agnes Religious Education program. Classes are on Wednesdays, 5:45-7:00pm for grades Kindergarten through 8th; and 7:15-8:30pm for high school and Confirmation preparation courses. Contact the Center at 494-6450 or e-mail us for more information at religioused@stagagnesgreenbay.org.

Fear Factor: Faith Edition: Attention High School Students - grades 9-12! Join the N.E.T. (National Evangelization Team) in craziness, games, moving drama, skits, and uplifting prayer! The N.E.T. Ministries, a Catholic, non-profit youth ministry committed to challenging young Catholics to love Christ and embrace the life of the Church. They are college students from around the States who are talented comedians, musicians and artists. This will be hosted by St. Joseph's Faith Formation Center and Holy Cross Bay Settlement located at 3002 Bay Settlement Road, Green Bay, on Tuesday, October 31, 7:00-9:30pm. The cost is $5.00 and includes snacks and soda. Contact Tina Meyer at 468-6554 or Julianne Donlon at 497-7042 to register.

LOTS OF KIDS AND NOT ENOUGH ADULTS

Volunteer Opportunities:

1. Grade School Catechists – The Kindergarten through 8th grade Religious Education Program is in need of 5th, 6th & 8th grade teachers and aides. Please consider this worthwhile opportunity to help the youth of our parish in their Religious formation. We need an additional four people to volunteer.
2. Confirmation Team – We need you to be part of the Confirmation Prep Team as a small group leader. Classes began September 27, 7:15-8:30pm.
3. Youth Ministry Team – If you're reading this, we want you! Do you think that there is not enough being done for young people in the Catholic Church? If you are a high school student or adult of this parish, please consider joining our team.

Please come and share your talents and faith with the youth of our parish.

For more information, please call the Center at 494-6450.

"HOW TO BE MARRIED AND STAY ENGAGED"

Mark your calendars for a meaningful afternoon. Support of Marriage after the wedding day often takes a very subtle approach. On November 4, the Diocese of Green Bay is making a vigorous effort to support Marriage and Family Life. Whether couples are newly married or celebrating their 50th anniversary, whether they are flourishing or struggling, this afternoon can be the next step to a more committed, fulfilled marriage. Dr. James Healy will help couples discover in a down to earth way how God and spirituality can be a compelling and effective part of their marriage. See the poster on the bulletin board in church for more details.

PARENTS OF GAY CHILDREN

Come with us . . . bond with us! Accept our gay children as they accept themselves. See their gifts and talk about our disappointments together.
