Everyday Evangelizing

All of us are called to evangelize and this can be done in simple ways in our everyday lives. A suggestion this week:

Today's readings call us to reexamine our understanding of the Sacrament of Marriage. Pray for couples struggling with irreconcilable differences and for those who are committed to love, honor and cherish one another. When you notice a wedding or anniversary celebration in our parish bulletin, pray that God will strengthen those marriages.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Imagine what is meant for Jesus to become a companion of death, so that we might become the companion of eternal life. Jesus "is not ashamed" to be our brother, but chooses to welcome us into His holy family. We all know of families who have hidden away or disowned their less admirable members. For Jesus to desire such close kinship with us is nothing less than amazing. Question: Jesus, your brother is coming to spend the weekend with you. What is in your heart that you want to share with Him?

Mass of Anointing

There will be a Mass of Anointing on Saturday, October 14 at 10:30am at St. Joseph Parish.

EXTRAORDINARY POWER TO FORGIVE . . .

It is clear in the Gospel of Luke that Jesus possesses this power and wants to share it with us! Beginning Monday, October 9, 6-8pm in the Church and Mondays, October 16, 23 and 30, Father Sam Jadin, O.Praem. will present his insights into the Gospel of Luke. A paralyzed man, a tax collector and a homeless woman are just a few of the people touched by Jesus' powerful gift of forgiveness. Come learn more about the Gospel of Luke and the power to experience forgiveness. MAKE PLANS TO ATTEND!
