Everyday Evangelizing

All of us are called to evangelize and this can be done in simple ways in our everyday lives. A suggestion this week:

St. Ignatius, St. Luke, and Ss. John de Brebeuf and Isaac Jogues and their companions are remembered this week. Ignatius wrote seven letters to the churches he visited, showing his concern for others. Luke's Gospel displays Jesus' concern for women and all who are oppressed in society. Finally, those first Christian martyrs of North America died because of their concern for Native Americans. What members of our families, neighborhoods or society need our concern today? How can we reach out to others as these saints did?

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Is wisdom the same as knowledge? Does being wise come from countless degrees and schooling? The spirit of wisdom is a gift from God, bestowed through prayer. All good things come to the person who keeps company with wisdom. Question: Who is the wisest person you know? What makes them wise?

REVENGE . . .

The writer of the Gospel of Luke takes seriously Jesus' command to love enemies rather than seek revenge against them. On Mondays, October 16, 23 & 30, 6-8pm in the church, Father Sam Jadin continues to present his insights into the Gospel of Luke. The message of this Gospel is contemporary - Jesus teaches us to actively do good for our enemies, replying to their curses with blessings and praying for them. MAKE PLANS TO ATTEND!

Family members of the deceased will receive their loved one's cross from the area near the tabernacle. Parish members are asked to remember these souls and their families as we approach this important day in our parish. For more information call the Parish Office.

A Letter from Bishop David A. Zubik:

My Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

The collection for World Mission Sunday is October 22. This collection includes the Propagation of the Faith, the Collection for Latin America, and the Collection to Aid the Catholic Church in Central and Eastern Europe. It is the opportunity for us, as a local church, to share our faith with our sisters and brothers around the world who are in need of our tangible and generous outreach.

The collection for The Propagation of Faith supports the work of the Church in the Mission Dioceses around the world. Grants from the Collection for Latin America provide catechetical and lay leadership programs, youth ministry, evangelization projects, as well as formation programs for religious, priests and deacons. The Collection to Aid the Church in Central and Eastern Europe supports seminarians, social service programs, youth ministry, pastoral centers, church restoration and spreading the Gospel message through the mass media.

On this World Mission Sunday, I ask for your prayers and assistance in supporting the missionary work of the Church. Please be as generous as your means will allow and continue to pray that all of us may be eager and effective witnesses of our faith in our Savior, Jesus Christ. Thank you and may God bless you.

Grateful for our belief that 'Nothing is impossible with God', I am

Your brother in Christ,

✠ David A. Zubik
