Everyday Evangelizing

All of us are called to evangelize and this can be done in simple ways in our everyday lives. A suggestion this week:

Living a life of service is today's Gospel lesson. Mother Theresa of Calcutta offers this advice: "Simply love and serve one person at a time. And do this one day at a time." What specifically will you do to serve others this week? What are some simple ways to show your love?

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

If the Son of Man serves humanity to the point of death, those who follow in His way must also "be the slave of all." The greatness of discipleship is measured, not in terms of position in the community or glory in the kingdom, but by the extent to which the disciple resembles Jesus who serves and gives His life. Question – Instead of places of honor, Jesus offers me . . .

PROPHETIC JUSTICE . . .

In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus teaches that prophetic justice is built on a realistic view of the world's limited resources which God has designed to be equally shared. On Mondays, October 23 & 30, 6-8pm in the Church Father Sam Jadin, O.Praem. continues to present his insights into the Gospel of Luke. For some to have less than enough, while others have more than enough is regarded as evil in itself. MAKE PLANS TO ATTEND!
