Everyday Evangelizing

All of us are called to evangelize and this can be done in simple ways in our everyday lives. A suggestion this week:

The Gospel of Luke emphasizes Jesus' compassion and forgiveness, even during His greatest suffering. Think of a current situation that involves pain and suffering. While these times of darkness may seem to demand our screaming protest, an article in The Compass by Fr. Ron Rolheiser suggests that we imitate Mary standing at the foot of the Cross. By her silence, she radiates gentleness, understanding, forgiveness, peace, light. Let these words guide us through this Holy Week as we prepare to celebrate the Paschal Triduum.

PASSION SUNDAY REFLECTION

Jesus Christ comes as KING. HOSANNAS ring out and palms are set down to welcome Him. But the challenge is there for us to dig deeper into the meaning behind this event. The Passion Sunday procession calls attention to Jesus so that we PAY ATTENTION to the way Jesus faces His PASSION and DEATH. Jesus faces all this with His focus to God, the Father. We are called to take Christ's example and turn our attention to God when we face trials and death in our lives.

NOVENA FOR THE FEAST OF DIVINE MERCY

When our Lord appeared to St. Faustina requesting that there be an official Church feast celebrating His Divine Mercy, He also requested a Novena to be started on Good Friday and ending on the day before Divine Mercy Sunday.
