Everyday Evangelizing

All of us are called to evangelize and this can be done in simple ways in our everyday lives. A suggestion this week:

On Tuesday we remember St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized. She earned a reputation as a shrewd bargainer in the handling of money while she ministered to Italian immigrants. She always trusted that God would provide. Pray that the same belief in God's providence will guide each of us as we consider our commitment to the Advancing the Mission Stewardship Campaign here at St. Agnes Parish.

HOLIDAY TURKEY DINNERS

With the holidays fast approaching it seems like a good time to first of all thank many of you for your past generosity in sponsoring holiday meals through your generous donations. As a parish we "partner" with various outreach agencies to provide gift cards to families so that they may have a full turkey dinner. We have made arrangements with Copps Food Store to provide just the right meal for any size family. Please place any amount of money in an envelope marked "Turkey" and put it in the Offertory collection or bring/send it to the parish office. $15 will feed a family of two/$45 will feed a family of 8-10 people.

ADVENT BY CANDLELIGHT

If you have never hosted a table for Advent by Candlelight, invite 7 friends to attend with you and reserve a table for $10 now, as there are only 6 tables left. It is on December 3 in the Social Hall at 5:30pm, and is a beautiful way to begin Advent with scripture, music, and fellowship with friends. You decorate your own table, as simply or elaborately as you wish, with your own table coverings, dishes and candles, and bring a snack and a dessert to share. The Social Hall is transformed into a beautiful Christmas wonderland. Call to reserve at 494-6356 (Katie), 494-7097 (Sandy), or 660-4481 (Joyce). Sponsored by the Community of Christian Women.
